

ABRAHAM LINCOLN AND THE AMERICAN WEST: A BIBLIOGRAPHY

Richard W. Etulain
Professor Emeritus of History
University of New Mexico

This listing of books and essays about Abraham Lincoln and the trans-Mississippi West does not include the standard biographies and other notable books by such scholars as Albert Beveridge, J. G. Randall, David Donald, Allen Guelzo, and Doris Kearns Goodwin. Nor have I listed all the one-to-two page essays in Lincoln Lore and most popular journals. I have also omitted western territorial, state, and regional histories that do little more than mention Lincoln in passing. But all substantial accounts of Lincoln's connections with the American West are listed here.
